Chapter 7- Study Questions

1. Analyze Daisy's attitude toward her child as evidenced in this chapter and in chapter 1. Is she a good mother? Explain why Gatsby looked "at the child with surprise."

In Chapter 1, she doesn't really brag about her daughter while in this chapter, she showed her off to her friends. I think Gatsby got a look of surprise on his face because he didn't think that the child is real. I also think that Gatsby didn't expected Daisy to move on.

2. With whom does Tom talk on the telephone early in the chapter? About what? He is talking to George Wilson about the car he's selling.

3. What does Gatsby mean when he says that Daisy's voice is "full of money"? Why does Fitzgerald put those words in Gatsby's mouth and not Nick's?

The way Daisy is talking is very sophisticated. Like how a rich woman speaks. I think in Gatsby's mouth because Nick was born in a comfortable family so maybe he didn't notice difference in Daisy's voice.

4. What arrangements are made regarding the passengers of each car on the trip to the city? Why?

Tom's with Nick and Jordan in Gatsby's car while Gatsby's with Daisy's alone in Tom's car. I think Daisy's wanted to be with Gatsby.

5. What does Gatsby do that makes Nick want "to get up and slap him on the back"? Why does Nick feel this way?

Telling that he is really an Oxford man and that he attended for 5 months after the war. It renews Nick's faith renews and now he believe Gatsby, he felt that Gatsby's not lying about everything.

6. Does Daisy know what love is? Whom does she really love?

No. She said she loves Gatsby but she also did not denied her love for Tom. I think she really loves Tom. Because after all these years, she's still with Tom and even though she knew about his affair, she didn't divorced him.

7. Is there any significance in the fact that the day is Nick's birthday?

I think his birthday implies that he's entering a new world. A world of loneliness, melancholy. He is now entering the brutalities of adulthood.

8. At the end of Chapter 7 Nick observes Gatsby, Tom, and Daisy after the accident. What conclusions does he reach?

Nick can see that Daisy and Tom are in this together, they're conspiring and they're going to blame it on Gatsby even though it's really Daisy who hit Myrtle.

9. Explain the last paragraph of Chapter 7.

The GREAT GATSBY

Chapter 9

1. Why do Tom and Daisy leave?

They ran away to escape responsibilities.

2. How does Nick react to the phone call revealing Gatsby's criminal activities?

He was mad at first but he got over it.

3. What is the significance of Mr. Gatz's arrival?

To show that his father is the only one who cared about him.

4. What is the irony of Mr. Gatz's admiration of the house?

He was proud of his son by how big and splendor it is. His values are the empty ones so he was just like him .

5. What is the pathos of Gatsby's youthful resolutions?

His resolutions showed how hard he tried to overcome poverty. He improved himself as a person and save money.

6. What two emotions are pulling at Mr. Gatz?

Two emotions are sorrow and pride. He's proud of what Gatsby had accomplished but even in his grief, it is not over the type of person his son was.

7. What is the irony of Mr. Gatz's comment about James J. Hill?

The irony is that even if he's the father of Gatsby, he had very little knowledge of his son.

8. What is the significance of the owl-eyed man's attendance at the funeral?

He was the only who saw the real Gatsby.

9. What is the significance of Jordan's comment about the "bad driver"?
