Words

1. Gustatory – Taste (sense).
2. Olfactory – Smell (sense)
3. Auditory – Hearing (sense)
4. Tactile – Touch (sense)
5. Visual – Sight (sense)
6. Imagery – The use of words to create a picture or ‘image’ in the mind of the reader.
7. Idyll – A story, often written in verse, usually concerning innocent and rustic characters in rural, idealized surroundings.
8. Idiom – A phrase that cannot be translated literally.
9. Iamb – The most common metric foot in English poetry.
10. Hyperbole – Deliberate and extravagant exaggeration.
11. Genre – A particular type of writing.
12. Free verse – A verse written without any fixed structure.
13. Foot – A group of syllables forming a unit of verse.
14. Figurative Language – Language that is symbolic or metaphorical and not meant to be taken literally.
15. Farce – A play that aims to entertain the audience through absurd and ridiculous characters and actions.
16. Fable – A short story that presents a clear, moral lesson.
17. Exemplum – A story that contains or illustrates a moral point put forward as an ‘example’.
18. Euphony – Use of pleasant or melodious sounds.
19. Euphemism – Expressing the unpleasant or unsavory in a less blunt and more pleasant way.
20. Epic – A long narrative poem, written in an elevated style, and usually dealing with a heroic or epic story.
21. Enjambment – A line of verse that flows onto the next line without a pause.
22. Allusion – A reference to another event, person, place, or work of literature.
23. Ambivalence – This indicates more than one possible attitude is being displayed by the writer towards a character, theme or idea.
24. Allegory – A story or narrative that has a deeper meaning.
25. Antagonist – The ‘bad guy’.
26. Apostrophe – An interruption in a poem or narrative so that the speaker can address a dead or absent person.
27. Antithesis – Contrasting ideas or words that are balanced against each other.
28. Caricature – A character often described through the exaggeration of a small number of features he / she possesses.
29. Caesura – A conscious break in a line of poetry.
30. Blank Verse – Unrhymed poetry that adheres to a strict pattern.
31. Comedy – Originally a play that ended happily.
32. Connotation – An implication or association attached to a word or phrase.
33. Diction – Another word for ‘vocabulary’ or ‘language’.
34. Didactic – Work that is intended to preach or teach.
35. Dramatic Monologue – A poem or prose piece in which a character addresses an audience.