5) Understand and be able to describe why people might decide to settle in a certain place (Example: Why do you think your town was settled where it is located? What are some advantages?)
6) Why are many of the world’s largest cities located near water?
7) Six different types of LAND USE.
8) What is the current (approximate) population of the world? Is there enough SPACE on the planet for all of these people?
9) Explain some factors that are lowering the world’s death rate.
10) What does the UN predict the world’s population will be by mid century?
11) Describe one important/useful SUSTAINABILITY STRATEGY that you have learned about in class. Explain how this strategy could have a positive effect on the planet.
12) Describe an interesting job that requires geography skills.
13) Understand some challenges facing the Sherpas who work and live on Mount Everest?

STUDENT’S CHOICE QUESTIONS -
You created these! I Promise that 2-3 will be included on the test.

What are the five themes of geography?
What are the 6 different types of land use?
What are two important steps in the INQUIRY PROCESS?
What are three reasons why the world’s death rates have slowed down in the past 200 years?
Describe one way that human beings can have a negative effect on the planet, other than just saying “littering” or “pollution”.
What is the definition of a Megacity?
What are three reasons that the world population has spiked in the past 200 years?
About how many people live on earth today?
Create a t-chart to describe reasons why it would be positive and negative to live in downtown Ottawa.
How many people in the world currently have trouble getting enough clean water to drink?
Describe three things that are being negatively affected as the world population continues to grow.
List the 5 factors that affect or promote urbanization.
Based on the video we watched, describe the most typical human being.
In 2050, which country is projected to have the highest population?
Where do most people live in Australia? Why do you think they have decided to settle there?