Regular Clergy
- Men who lived a communal monastic life (monasteries)

Secular Clergy
- Priests and bishops who staffed churches in which people worshipped and who were not cut off from the world

Greek Orthodox Monasticism
- They developed their own set of rules for organization and behavior - not the Rule of Saint Benedict
- Education was not a central feature
- World differed in fundamental ways from monasticism that evolved in western Europe