2. Do you think it was appropriate for the researchers to use correlational design? Why or why not?
Yes, I believe it was appropriate for the researchers to use correlational design in order to analyze their predictions against research results which improves their understanding of the research problem.