THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

- The February Revolution 1917: On 8\textsuperscript{th} March the Russian peasants took to the streets demanding for bread. By the 10\textsuperscript{th} March the revolution had spread among all of Petrograd’s workers.

- Ultimately on 15\textsuperscript{th} March Nicholas II abdicated.

- Power was then shared between the weak provisional government and the Petrograd Soviet.
