- Nuclear Arms Race during cold war – The US had a nuclear monopoly until 1949 in which the USSR had its first nuclear test. Throughout the Cold war the US and Soviet Union were in a nuclear arms race
- Soviet was seen as the liberator of Europe and the hero
- Year after bombing of Japan people all over are still questioning eh justification of Truman’s decision to drop eh atomic bomb. They say the bomb was an immoral act of injustice yet others see it as the only solution. To what extent could the use of the atomic bomb be justified?

They were saving American lives. Kept Japan from being like Germany. It was an act of defense. We saw that they didn’t respond. They would stop at nothing to destroy us. Killing innocent lives. Many though we used it for wrong reason, we wanted to show off. It did End wwII
