- GHOST OF CHRISTMAS PAST:
- _It was a strange figure - like a child: yet not so like a child as like an old man. Its hair, was white as if with age; and yeah the face had not a wrinkle in it, and the tenderest bloom on the skin._
- _It wore a tunic of the purest white._
- _From the crown of its head the sprung a bright clear jet of light._
- _A great extinguisher for a cap, which it now held under its arm._
- ‘Would you so soon put out...the light I give?’
- ‘A solitary child, neglected by his friends, if left there still’
- ‘But she had a large heart!’  {about Fan}
- ‘A small matter to make these folks so full of gratitude’

- FRED:
- ‘A merry Christmas, uncle! God save you!’
- ‘What reason have you to be morose? You’re rich enough’
- ‘I want nothing from you; I ask nothing of you; why cannot we be friends?’
- _His nephew left the room without an angry word_
- ‘Stave III’
- ‘However, his offences carry their own punishment, and I have nothing to say against him’
