2. Delusions of Persecution
Delusional belief that others are trying to harm one due to one’s elevated status/powers etc

3. Auditory 2nd Person Hallucinations (Grandiose Type)
Religious, mystical, grandiose themes; voices telling one of one’s elevated status, powers, etc

4. Auditory 2nd Person Command Hallucinations
Voice/s imparting a special mission or purpose to the person

5. Visual Hallucinations
Vivid, bright colours/lights; seeing angels/“face of God” etc

6. Olfactory or Gustatory Hallucinations
Pleasant/ Pleasurable smells and tastes

- Delusions and hallucinations may be related to (i) Identity or (ii) Ability
- For example, delusions of identity would include grandiose delusions such as believing oneself to be a prophet/messiah or a celebrity
- Delusions of ability would include, for example, the delusional belief that one could control the minds of others through blinking