To achieve their social development to protect them from exploitation, the protection of civil rights act 1995, the SC & ST act 1989 were enacted.

Article 330 for reservation of SC & ST, Article 15 for abolition of untouchability are ensured by the legislation.

WELFARE OF OBC

In 1990, after the recommendation of Mandal commission, it’s decided for reservation of 27% for OBC in civil services.

The National commission for OBC was set up on 14 Aug 1993, which is working for the development of the other backward classes. IN 2008, under Budget Planning, government planned for 27% of reservation for OBC in higher education with the amount of 875 crore.

WELFARE OF DISABLE PERSON

The law namely the equal opportunity, protection of rights & full participation act 1995 has been enacted & enforced in Feb 1996.

The Mental Health Act 1987 & Lapers Act 1898 are working for the prevention & promotional aspects of the disable persons.

The rehabilitation such as education, employment & vocational training, Grant-in-aid should be given to the people with disable.

LABOUR WELFARE

The international labor organization (ILO) was set up in 1919 for the promotion of universal peace through social justice. National commission on labor was set up on 2002 for bringing new changes & welfare majors for women, children & self employed workers who work as laborer.

The labor welfare funds/scheme provide medical, educational, recreational & other family welfare benefits, who are working in iron ore, mica, chrome, etc. The labor welfare policies as equal work, crèche system for working women, maternity leave, security & care facilities for laborer are some of the welfare measures.

HOUSING WELFARE

To provide houses to workers, the central government provides loans & subsidies to state government, individuals & employees. The Welfare Fund Act, Indira Awas Yojana, Jawahar Homes through Jawahar Rojgar Yojna, short stay homes for destitute women, the person effected with communicable diseases as leprosy, TB etc. are some of the housing welfare majors provided by the government.