FUNDAMENTALS PRINCIPLES

- Brain comprises around 2% of total body weight.
- Brain has a relatively high metabolic demand, due to being largely reliant on oxidative metabolism, so it receives 15-20% of the total cardiac output.
- Loss of consciousness occurs within 10 seconds of the interruption of arterial blood supply to the brain and irreparable damage to brain tissue occurs after only a few minutes.