one sided nasal congestion suggests deviated nasal septum
nasal polyp
FB
granuloma
carcinoma

local tenderness over sinuses together with sx$s such as pain, fever and nasal dc suggest acute sinusitis

what conditions could indicate nasal polyps allergic rhinitis
ASA sensitivity
asthma
chronic sinus infections
cystic fibrosis

in viral rhinitis the mucosa is reddened and swollen

in allergic rhinitis the mucosa is pale, bluish or red tenderness of the nasal tip or alae suggests local infections such as a furuncle

in unilateral sensorineural hearing loss sound is heard in the good ear

in unilateral CHL sound is heard in the impaired ear

what are some reasons for CHL otosclerosis
OM
TM perf
cerumen

a serous effusion a thickened drum or purulent OM may decrease mobility

in chronic OM the skin of the canal is often thickened red and itchy

red bulging of an acute purulent drum indicates OM