From going through the different techniques that the three stores, we can see that M&S and River Island are more balanced in terms of the techniques, whereas, Tesco are more focused around tangibles and explicit techniques, as in the work previous and also expressed in this task, they have one only tangible technique, which is still somewhat connected to tangibles with the seasonal display, so this is where Tesco greatly differs from the other stores.