17. You are providing medication education to Petra, who has been prescribed a prostaglandin analog for the treatment of What should you tell her about side effects?
1. Systemic side effects are rare, but can include upper respiratory
2. Systemic side effects are common but typically
3. Systemic side effects are so uncommon that it can be safely used in pregnant or nursing
4. Systemic side effects are common and often

ANSWER: a

18. Arturo is having a medical procedure that requires the application of a local anesthetic, tetracaine, to his What should he know about this medication?
1. He should wear an eye patch because the medication causes a temporary loss of the blink
2. This medication may have the effect of causing his eyelashes to
3. This medication is associated with potentially serious cardiovascular side
4. He should massage his eye vigorously to help the effects of the medication wear off

ANSWER: a

19. Sergio has had cataract What kind of eye drops will he likely be given to reduce post-surgical inflammation?
1. NSAID
2. mydriatic
3. cyclosporine
4. corticosteroid

ANSWER: a

20. Alfred is taking an alpha agonist to treat his What is especially important for him to know?
1. The medication is likely to cause postural hypotension and he should use caution in
2. The medication often causes shortness of breath, so exercise should be
3. The medication may cause drowsiness and he should be careful when engaging in hazardous
4. The medication can have a potentially fatal interaction with

ANSWER: c

21. Antonia is surprised to learn that her friend has been prescribed aminoglycoside-containing eye drops because she knows that they are associated with damage to the.
1. pupil
2. aqueous humor
3. corneal epithelium
4. optic nerve

ANSWER: c