Polio:

Like TB there is certain factors that determine how much it kills and where it kills. Central Africa has the highest Polio death rate, and in places like Europe it has been eradicated due to successful vaccinations.