Case study: Rwandan Genocide

- 1300s - Tutsis migrate into what is now Rwanda, which was already inhabited by the Twa and Hutu peoples.
- 1600s - Tutsi King Ndori subdues central Rwanda and outlying Hutu areas.
- Late 1800s - Tutsi King Rwabugiri establishes a unified state with a centralised military structure.
- 1916 - Belgian forces occupy Rwanda.
- 1923 - Belgium granted League of Nations mandate to govern Ruanda-Urundi, which it ruled indirectly through Tutsi kings. In 1933, ID cards for Hutus and Tutsis are introduced.
- 1946 - Ruanda-Urundi becomes UN trust territory governed by Belgium. Timeline is useful here.
