-1938 German soldiers marched across the border into Austria
Austria disappears from the map

-To attempt to prevent a new world war France and UK made a deal that involved giving Germany the western parts of Czechoslovakia. This happened without Czechoslovakia’s permission. The deal was signed in Munich and are therefore called The Munich Agreement