The Roman Republic
According to the legend, the city of Rome was founded in 753 BCE by twins (Romulus and Remus).
Twin sons of the god Mars and a Latin princess
The twins were abandoned shortly after birth on the banks of the Tiber River
They were raised by a she-wolf
After they were grown, they decided to build a city on the spot of their abandonment
In reality
Men built the city. The site for the city was chosen for fertility
Rome’s Geography
It was built on 7 rolling hills
near the center of the Italian Peninsula
The Italian Peninsula is also the midway point of the Mediterranean
The First Romans
100-500 BCE
Three groups inhabited the region and battled for control
Latins, Greeks, The Etruscans
The Latin built the first settlement in Rome.
An are therefore considered to be the FIRST Romans.
Tribunes were basically a group of people that made sure that the Plebeians got a little power.
12 tablets of roman law.

Consoles (2)
/    -|-   \nSenators (300)   | Tribunes (10)
             |         |
Citizen Assemblies (Adult Male Citizens)