serfs and peasants lived in cottages with only 1 or 2 rooms would warm their dirt floor by bringing pigs inside.
Peasants diet consisted of vegetables course brown bread
grain
cheese
soup
Serfs accepted their way of life and viewed it as part of church teachings.
Believed God determined a person’s place in society.