German states do not unify king’s following Frederick attempts to restore Charlemagne’s empire and his alliance with the Church however, they are in continual conflict with Italian cities and the Pope German Princes electing the king weakened royal authority.