Should students have to wear uniforms.

In this essay I will speak about uniforms in school. Uniforms are huge discussion in all schools all around the world. So let’s start with cons.

First of all having to wear school uniforms doesn’t allow individuality. Of course individuality is a very important thing for kids. Kids should be allowed to show their individuality in schools. I for one think that it would be boring having to dress the same as everyone else. I’m sure that most kids would agree with me that having to wear uniforms is boring. Also because uniforms are very expensive. When kids have to wear uniforms it’s not only a disappointment to kids but also to parent because how expensive buying uniforms are. Also some people can’t afford to buy uniforms for school. Some people may not even be able to go to school because of how expensive having to buy uniforms is. That is not fair to the kids who want to go to school and get a good education but can’t because of how expensive uniforms are.

But there are also pros which I will talk about right now.

A shirt, tie and blazer may not be the ingredients for my favourite outfit, but if I were given the choice, I wouldn’t throw away the idea of school uniform. Wearing a uniform is a badge of pride, creates an identity for a school and is an important part of being a school student. Uniforms show that you are part of an organisation. Wearing it says we’re all in this together. Uniforms give students a sense of belonging to a particular school and create an identity for the school in the community. Perhaps most importantly, a uniform means students don’t have to worry about peer pressure when it comes to their clothes. When everyone is dressed the same, worrying about what you look like isn’t so important. There is no competition about being dressed in the latest trend, which would put a great deal of financial pressure on students and parents. Although wearing a school uniform is less expensive than
