

engage the team members to pick ourselves when things do not go as we had planned. Being able to learn and develop an effective business plan from the mistakes and failures.

Being a visionary gives me an upper hand in the team as I will be able to see easily where things can be improved during the process. I will be able to grasp the bigger picture and explain my opinion to the team which will enable us to create a compelling vision of the future and inspire the team members to engage with that vision.

Last strength but not the least is the fact that is tolerant. With this strength, I will help the team to become risk tolerant. This will be very crucial for the team such that they will not be afraid to take the perceived risk and make decisions when facts are uncertain.
