

Earn an education that can work
for a lifetime

We can help you every step of the way at DeVry University

At DeVry University, you can find what you need to succeed – flexible schedules, personal attention, hands-on learning and professors with real, practical experience. Plus, you can obtain the ongoing support you need to pursue a career path that's right for you.

You can learn the specialized skills of your chosen profession that can provide you a competitive edge in your career. And you can develop the critical business skills that can help you succeed in many business environments. As part of your studies, you can use the most up-to-date business-oriented software and receive guidance from professors with business experience. Coursework in our bachelor's degree programs culminates with the completion of a Senior Project, which addresses real world business needs.

As a student, you can learn important business concepts and communications skills. And you can take advantage of the practical experiences our degree programs provide. When you land your dream career, you can be prepared with the knowledge and experience you need to jump right into your new role.

If you're interested in pursuing an advanced degree, you can continue your studies at DeVry University's Keller Graduate School of Management. With qualifying credits, you may be able to save tuition dollars and earn your master's degree in less time. We focus on fields where careers are trending towards growth, including accounting and finance, project management and business operations.

Holding a DeVry University diploma also means you can earn a degree from an institution that is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association (ncahlc.org), a significant mark of institutional quality and integrity.
