

Key terms

- Localisation- Specific areas of the cerebral cortex that are associated with particular physical and psychological functions
- Lateralisation- The dominance of 1 hemisphere of the brain for particular physical and psychological functions.
- Hemisphere- is 1 half of the brain either left or right. The left hemisphere is associated with language and the right is associated with movement.

