.mov , .wmw , .3gpp , .mp4 , .mp2 , .flv and so on... Don't forget the keyword as file name (it's very important)

- ✓ Now go to youtube (assuming, you have an account already ou just create one for this method) Once you start collecting bucks you will reinvest that to create more accounts and expand your arsenal.

Here is another tip that my best friend showed me: Don't login into your youtube account yet. Just do a research with you main keyword, the product name. Look for the top 3 results. Grab some tags here and there. Watch videos if you want then login into your youtube account and upload your video.
