

demand of a separate homeland So for representing that idea they created All India Muslim league. When Allama Iqbal represented the idea of a separate homeland having Muslim majority. PAKISTAN is a conjunction of two words PAK means pure and STAN means land a name coined by Choudary Rehmat Ali. The time passed by but Indians always wanted to rule on Muslims. At that time a conference was held and everybody took a pledge that they will go under any danger for the sake of their homeland. Gradually the hard struggle turned into a glorious victory. Happy Endings are true it was 14th AUGUST 1947. Quaid e Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah announcing and congratulating on the glorious victory.
