

Assessment of Classification

Q1. What do we call organising living things into groups?

classification (1)

Q2. Name the five different kingdoms.

class, order, family, genus and plant, Animal, fungi, protist, Prokaryotes. (1)

Q3. Which classification group would you find most organisms?

Kingdom (1)

Q4. Which classification group would you find the smallest number of organisms?

~~Fungi~~ Species species (1)

Q5. (i) Name any animal that belongs to the phylum chordata.

~~African~~ Lion (1)

(ii) Explain why the animal you have chosen belongs to the phylum chordata.

It has a back bone in the back. (rod like structure in the back.) (2)

Q6. Name any animal that belongs to the phylum chordata and the class mammal.

~~tiger~~ Tiger (2)

Q7. Name five animals that belong to the phylum chordata, the class mammal and the order carnivore.

~~But~~ Lion, dog, cat, wolf and human (3)

Three animals have been placed in the same genus group. What does this tell you about the three animals?

they have the same genus that are closely related.
why there is the same group. (2)

Assessment

12-14 marks = GCSE C 9 - 11 marks = GCSE D

6 - 8 marks = GCSE E 4 - 5 marks = GCSE F 3 marks = G

14
14