

- Malvolio believes the letter and goes to Olivia wearing yellow stockings, cross-garter looking foolish as Olivia is confused.

6) Sir Andrew

- From the start we know he's foolish by the name aguecheek which is an illness so we know his character is not appealing to look at so when we know his role is to get with Olivia, we find it funny.
- He's unintelligent so acts smart but doesn't actually know what's said.
 - "Her C's, her U's, and her T's; why what?" pg 79 Act 2, Scene 5.
 - Pg 95
 - Cesario replies to his French and he doesn't understand.

7) Critics and interpretations
