

E. bronneglin: made of 2 subunits: make trails for cells

- Cell-Cell communication, Protection against forces, Structural

- ~~these enzymes~~ made of claudin & occludin
- tight junctions: prevent particles from passing them & prevent proteins in membrane from moving them

In plant cells Plasmodesmata are similar to gap junctions - they form channels that perforate cell wall - often form during cell division right down middle