

and helped that Negro boy and asked his name.

"My Name is Khalid and I have left my Mom and Dad from the city of Hungary" said the boy.

"I am Mr. Abdul Razzak I am not only a trader. Also I am a good soldier. I am the one who protect this country and care the people. So that only I've brought you hear" said the trader.

And that night after the dinner, boy Khalid went to sleep. That day he had a big dream which starts the history of him.

He saw that he sat on a big beautiful rock in a beautiful garden. He saw the sun shines brilliantly. The birds revolved the sky. He has fainted

Because of this sudden death Khalid stopped his studies. He wanted to follow a business to gain opportunities for living. He asked ideas about it from Mrs. Abdul Razzak. She didn't moved her lips, the dark and filthy woman with shamed eyes and strong body and not clearly combed her hair. Khalid was very wrong with her.

Next day, Khalid saw some traders going on the business. He asked one of them called Abdur Rahman, the white person,

"Can I come with you?"

The man was silent. Then he said with kindly,

"Oh! Little boy, you are looking so proudly. It is a long trade we are

Chapter 3

As a Karate-man

Khalid grew up well. He got twenty ages old. And he was doing his life very happily with his mom and dad. The thing is Khalid's mom and dad got very old as well as in the past. They got about eighty five years. Their cheeks were hanging below from their faces. Also they lost little of their memories.

One day, when Khalid's father went on the street, he found a glass damaged by someone. He took the glass and saw his face on that glass.

"Oh! What an ugly shape of the glass"

He said seeing the glass.

Preview from Notesale.
Page 25 of 35

Khalid remembered his dream.

'The sky became black. The beautiful birds became as the ugly bats'

He saw the same scenery in the night time. So he ensured his dream. He thought that it was a message from god. But still he couldn't understand the ending part of his dream. He said to himself,

"How can a beast come?

Is really the beast is there?"

But soon after, he became a Karate-man. Sabith Abdhullah called his boys and said,

"Hereafter, Khalid is going to be your leader and the Kung-fu warrior. You have to obey him"