

she claims to have seen the much prettier Eva - which the dress suited very well sniggering. Eva was fired without explanation, this was her last stable job.

- Sheila instantly and genuinely feels very guilty for what had happened - the opposite of Mr.Birling.
- After the inspector reveals that after this Eva changed her name to Daisy Renton, Gerald instantly gives himself away. The Inspector, Mr.Birling and Eric all go out leaving just Sheila and Gerald alone on stage. This created great tension especially because Gerald tries to operate through detail, silence and refusal of responsibility when questioned by Sheila.
- The act ends with the Inspector's question, 'well?'.
