

Final overall file review

A final overall review of the audit file is done by the audit engagement partner prior to issuing the audit opinion

Considerations:

- Are the Financial Statements true and fair?
- Is the audit evidence sufficient & appropriate?
- Have other completion procedures been performed?
 - Subsequent events
 - Going concern assessment
 - Final analytical review
 - Second partner review (if needed)

