

DAD

You were a dad of my dreams, who knew what I want,
hence kindly do me grant.
Sadly, I find I can't see you further, heartbreakingly I cry more and more.

You were the reason for my strength, the most probable reason for my happiness, we enjoyed together like mads, we mourned together for the sad.

You were the person of kindness, a helping hand for everyone,
a restless person to help others, forgetting about yourself to bother.
You're an earthly man who struggled, an inspiration for those who are tangled...

I loved you the most and,
will love you till the end, I wish you'd come back & go for ever, you will always be my true love forever...

I wish you will be happy heavenly,
I do miss you & mean it truly,
Do bless me daddy & always rest in peace, all after everything I want only this.....
