

Population: A group of individuals of the same species living together in a habitat.

Predation: Occurs when one organism catches, kills and eats another organism for food.

Parasitism: Is a close relationship between two organisms of different species in which one lives in, on or off the other and from which it obtains nourishment (usually causing harm)

Symbiosis: The close relationship between two organisms of different species in which at least one of them benefits.

Pollution: Is the addition of harmful substances to the environment.

Conservation: Is the wise management of our environment to ensure the survival of organisms and their habitats.

Habitat: The place where an organism lives.

Preview from Notesale.co.uk
Page 2 of 2