

Darwinism.

- Formulated by Charles Darwin.
- On the basis of study in Galapagos Island.
- Voyage in the ship HMS Beagle.
- Theory of Origin of species is in the book Origin of species by means of natural selection.
- Finches were the organism observed by Darwin.
- Difference in their beaks attracted Darwin.

- Insectivorous finches have small, sharp and long beaks those feed on cactus plant.
- Woodpecker finches that feed on worms from holes in tree trunks using small twigs.
- Ground finches that feed on seeds with large beaks