

	undressed – undoing shirt buttons, unzipping and zipping back up again. • Eat with a spoon and fork. Gross Motor Skills: • Kicking a ball. • Learnt how to climb up a step and jump back off. • Climbing up the stairs.	• There understanding is a mixture of real and imaginary. • Are able to name objects or animals such as dog, cat, ball. • Can follow a instruction. • May not be able to pronounce there words clearly as some are harder than others.	people feel different to them. • Can now play with a group with a group of children interacting but still may not be able to share. • Start to feel there emotion going from jealousy to loving there family members. • Find it hard to make choices. • Likes to copy people.
Age 3-4 Years	• Able to roll and bounce a ball, catching it may still be a bit difficult. • Throw a ball using there shoulders and elbows. • Balance has improved. • Can button up clothes and unbutton them. • Can hold a pencil correctly and use it. • Starting to take responsibility for there own toileting.	• Start to understand a story that has been read to them. • Understand the order of daily routines. • Being able to think creatively. • Develop in judgment. • Are able to tell you there age. • Understands the meaning of tall, short, and other words. • They are able to talk to you and tell you what happened the day before.	• Learning how to share and take turns with other children. • Be able to sit for a short amount of time. • By seeing other children upset may make them upset as they are getting used to their emotions and if one child cries they might think that's what they have to do.