Reptiles:

- Lay eggs
- Breath air
- Have a scaly, dry skin (help prevent water loss)

Birds:

- Lay eggs
- Incubate their eggs and takes care of the baby
- Have wings, beak, feathers on their body and scales on their legs
- Not all birds fly

Mammals:

- sale co.uk Babies develop insid
- of her feeds her young or her milk Hair or fur covers wir skin

Dichotomous key

- Dichotomous key is a tool that allows the user to determine the identity of items in the natural world
- Dichotomous means divided into two parts therefore dichotomous keys always give two choices in each step
- Starts from general characteristics to go into more specific ones