

EDUCATION

It is a form of learning in which a knowledge, skills and attitude are transferred from one generation to the next through teaching, learning, training and research.

It takes place under the guidance of others.

Education is divided into stages;

Pre-primary (early education)

Primary

Secondary

College, University.

EDUCATION AS A PROCESS

It is a process in which and by which knowledge, character and behavior of the youths are molded.

Education is the process through which total development and personality of an individual takes place.

CHARACTERISTICS OF EDUCATION

- Education is a social process
 - Education is development
 - Education plays a significant role in social conservation
- Education brings about desirable change in human behavior

PERSPECTIVES OF EDUCATION

- Historical perspective
- Philosophical perspective
- Social perspective
- Comparative perspective