

1. Who is God in your life?

He is the one that brings me to life, God uses my mother and father as an instrument to make me exist in his wonderful world he created. God is the ruler, a provider and makes everything happen for many reasons that will bring lessons and happiness in my life. He is also a good listener whenever I have many problems and if I have no one to talk to. He sacrifices himself just to save me from my sin. And above all, he is the owner of my life that's why I should live my life according to his purpose.

2. How can you show your love to God?

To show my love to God, I should do and follow his 10 commandments, show love and kindness to my fellow people. I will be kind, humble, patient, friendly, truthful, righteous and faithful. Moreover, I should help someone who needs my help according to my capabilities. Spreading his word and wisdom is also my way to show my love to Him. To sum it up, I should love Him with all my heart, mind and soul. And live according to His purpose.
