

Counselors as developmental guidance specialists

- use of skill in order to achieve growth
- creation of a comprehensive and developmental guidance and counseling program

Counselors and career development specialists

- finding the right employer
- giving career advice
- assessing job sustainability

Counselors as community collaboration specialists

- need for leadership, consultation, and management skills
- facilitate collaboration among community stakeholders

Counselors as leaders and advocates of success

- serving as leaders
- building community with diversity, appreciation, and collaboration

Counselors as advocates of a safe environment

- establishing relationships to ensure the safety of the community

End
