

Human digestive system

1. Mouth-

It is an opening guarded by two lips. Further it opens in buccal cavity.

2. Buccal cavity-

It contains teeth, tongue and salivary glands.

I. Teeth- In human, teeth are thecodont, heterodont and diphyodont

Thecodont- In human teeth are fit in the socket of jaw bone.

Heterodont- In human teeth are of four types-

Incisors- biting

Canines- tearing

Premolars- grinding and chewing

Molars- grinding and chewing

Diphyodont- in human teeth arise two times-

Milk teeth- These are temporary, arise at 6 to 11 month age, 20 in number

Dental formula-

Half upper jaw

2102