

5. Cost-Plus Pricing: this is where the seller determines their cost of production and adds an amount depending on how much profit they want to make. It is a great starting point for setting prices because if the business wants to make a profit it has to cover its costs first. It can be achieved through mark-up (expressed as a percentage of the product's cost) and profit margin (expressed as a percentage of the product's selling price).

Preview from Notesale.co.uk
Page 3 of 3