

Lines 5-6

Trusting his images he assumes their relevance

Mistrusting my images I question their relevance

Explanation: The sharp person thinks that the results that he has derived from his quest are accurate and correct. He does not doubt the relevance of his findings. While on the other hand, the poet mistrusts his findings, he doubts their accuracy. As a result, he makes a thorough research. Therefore his results and findings are relevant.

Lines 7-8

Assuming their relevance he assume the fact

Questioning their relevance I question the fact

Explanation: The sharp person thinks that his findings are relevant. Therefore he assumes the facts. He thinks that whatever he has found in the more truth, while on the other hand. the poet, who