

I've learnt in many stories that shield is more useful in these type of cases as it can act as both a weapon and a shield. The last and the most dangerous challenge we met with was to solve a puzzle within 8 minutes, which wasn't easy. This was the dangerous part: I can't control how long I take and eventually the door way is going to close. I was trying to solve the puzzle, but the difficult problem took me 5 minutes to answer, as I still don't have the answer..at last the door had a small gap when i got there then i ran towards the door, but it seemed like I wouldnt make it so I threw my shield. It was only blocked for about 8 seconds, but I managed to roll out when it opened. I was finally outside and i met my two friends who had also completed the maze so we three moved all together towards the treasure but the treasure was having a lock but this time I was with the key as the key appeared when i had solve the puzzle. so finally we got the treasure...
