7. Practice speaking: Take advantage of opportunities to speak English, whether it's with a tutor, classmate, or native speaker.

Speaking is an important aspect of the TOEFL test, and it's essential to practice speaking English as much as possible. Please take advantage of opportunities to speak English, whether it's with a tutor, classmate, or native speaker. This will help you get used to speaking English in an academic setting and will also help you build confidence in your speaking skills.

Examples of opportunities to practice speaking English:

A student wants to see how much they have improved since their last practice test. Students can track their progress by taking multiple practice tests and see if their scores increase.

Use Case 2:

A student is preparing for the TOEFL to meet the language proficiency requirements for their job. By taking practice tests, the student can prepare for the actual test and increase their chances of getting a high score, which will help them meet their employment goals.

11. Time management: Effective time management is critical to success on the TOEFL. Each section of the test is timed, and it's essential to ensure you have enough time to answer each question and complete each task within the time limit. For example, in the Reading section, you may have to read several passages and answer questions about them. It's important to pace yourself and ensure you have enough time to read and answer each question. Similarly, in the Speaking section, you may be asked to speak for several minutes on a topic, so it's essential to manage your time and communicate clearly and concisely.

12. Focus on the task: It's essential to read each question, study carefully, and understand what's being asked before you begin. For example, the Reading section provides the requested information before reading the passage. If you need help understanding the question, take a moment to reread it and make sure you know what's being asked. This will help you answer the question more effectively and avoid making mistakes.
