

Are you Worried about CA Inter Cost Accounting for May,23 attempt..?

Recently, many of my students preparing for the C Intermediate May 2023 attempt have expressed concern about the subject of cost accounting. They have less time to prepare and feel unprepared for costing. Here, I am delighted to offer a solution for you all! Welcome to the KSJA Family! If you are preparing for the November 2023 or later attempts, you are in luck! You have sufficient time to invest in your studies. You can use YouTube lectures, and along with them, invest in our handbooks called ICISM series and Allrounder series. In this video, I am going to provide a strategy for those of you with limited time to prepare for the cost accounting exam. Pay attention, because I will provide some critical tips and messages for all of you within the next five minutes. This content is available in both Hindi and English, and students from southern India who understand English have benefitted from this content. You can access our content via our mobile app, which is available for both iOS and Android.

Students preparing for ICS examinations can benefit from the study material and handbooks that contain past exam questions. This has helped many students, and our members, who we consider to be part of the KSJA family, have also found great value in these resources. While the material may not be available in English, there is an option for the Fast Track program. Don't worry about the cost and invest in the right strategy at the right time. Follow the links provided in the video description to get started.
