

- the extent to which modern technology has increased fair outcomes including:
 - better timing devices
 - increased accountability of officials
 - more accurate decision making
 - improved detection of foul play
 - improved detection of doping
- the extent to which modern technology has limited or decreased fair outcomes including:
 - access to modern technology can be limited
 - performance enhancing drug testing technology cannot keep up with new drug development
 - pressure on officials due to the exposure and scrutiny of their decisions

Entertainment:

- the extent to which modern technology has increased entertainment including:
 - action replays
 - multiple camera angles
 - slow motion technology
 - improved analysis
 - punditry
- the extent to which modern technology has reduced or limited entertainment including:
 - interruption and delay - VAR, goal checking
 - reduced live attendances - easy to stay at home and watch with family, watch in pubs with crowd

Preview from Notesale.co.uk
Page 6 of 6