

The Easiest Side Hustle: Making $1000 Online with AI

If you're looking for a simple way to make money online, try out this side hustle that uses AI. Follow these steps:

Visit the website futurepedia.io

Choose from over 450 AI tools available to use.

Join Futurepedia.io's affiliate program

Get 100 people to join this month and 25 commissions in return

Why Use Futurepedia.io?

According to Reese, the two biggest problems people face with affiliate marketing are finding good products and getting people to click on their links. However, Futurepedia.io solves both of these issues.

Business Plans

If you opt for the Business Plan, which costs $25 a month, you'll receive a premium domain name and a free SSL certificate, which are worth the cost alone. Additionally, you'll have access to unlimited storage and unlimited AI-generated promotions.

Make $1000 a Month

If you get 40 people to sign up using your link, you'll make $1000 every single month in revenue.

Convert your video into a PDF document using Scribe to add value to your product and attract potential customers. To begin recording your screen, click on "Start Recording." For phone users, simply record your phone screen. Don't worry, this is not a video recording. Many people are hesitant to make videos that encourage people to click and buy, but fear not! We will use the chrome extension, VidIQ, to assist us. VidIQ can also be used as a phone app. This keyword has a monthly search volume of 14,450 and low competition, just as I predicted. A search on YouTube for "Durable AI" shows that the top videos promoting this keyword have significant views, proving that making videos about these tools can provide free traffic from YouTube.
