

- Another important source of securing capital is creditors or lenders.
- Finance and Management Functions

Finance and Management Functions

- There exist an inseparable relationship between finance on one hand and production, marketing and other functions on the other.
- All activities directly or indirectly involve the acquisition and use of funds

Finance Functions

The finance function are divided into long term and short term decisions and includes:

Long term decisions

- Investment or Long Term Asset Mix Decision
- Financing or Capital Mix Decision