

- Supervise the implementation of the DepEd curriculum, programs, and projects in the division level in both public and private schools.
- Province or city is considered as division for DepEd.

Regional Directors

- Manage the programs and projects of the Department of Education in the regional level.

Education Program Specialists

- Work at the national level or at the central offices of the Commission on Higher Education and the Department of Education.
- They assist the two government agencies in the development of curriculum policies that helps teachers and other curriculum leaders in the implementation of curriculum.

Technical Panels and Technical Committees

- Professors and individual experts from different disciplines and fields that assist the Commission on Higher Education in developing curriculum, formulating curriculum policies, and evaluating compliance of higher education institutions to CHED programs standards.

Posner (1995)

- In analyzing a curriculum, a careful examination of the background philosophy, expertise, and the level of involvement of different workers are important.

Walker (1971)

- In the process of curriculum development, various curriculum workers bring with them their philosophies, beliefs, expertise, and other concerns when they plan and develop curriculum.